

Keynote Intro

Dr. John R. Stoker

John Stoker is the interpersonal engagement guru.

He is the founder of DialogueWORKS, a training and consulting firm that specializes in effective human interaction and improved emotional intelligence.

He is the author of the best-selling book, Overcoming Fake Talk, which focuses on how to hold REAL Conversations that get results. He is currently working on another title, Seven Conversations Every Leader Ought to Know How to Hold.

John is passionate about helping people at all levels talk about what matters most to improve professional and personal results in life and in business. He is often referred to as one of the best story tellers in the world.

John is also a passionate outdoor enthusiast, father of five, a fanatic for college football, and he has an obsession for whitewater rapids and red rock.

Ladies and gentlemen...John Stoker

